

Will execute your orders, be they large or small, with the same skill and care that has always characterized DISPATCH printing.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

DISPATCH ADVERTISERS

Are the progressive merchants in every line. Personal of the advertising columns of the DISPATCH can only result in mutual profit between buyer and seller.

VOL. XXXIX. NO. 25.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 17, 1915.

$1.00 A YEAR

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings in the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

By CLARENCE BAKER

J. N. Paisley was in Lisbon Tuesday.

Miss Mary Fitzsimmons was a Lisbon caller Tuesday.

Miss Leta Bossert was a Youngstown caller Saturday.

David Somerville started to work Monday in the Salem mill.

Miss Ida Young of Sebring spent Sunday in the village with friends.

Mrs. Wade Smith of McDonald was here visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McNeal were Salem callers last Sunday evening.

James Kennedy of Salem visited friends here last Thursday afternoon.

John Thorp returned to Mount Union college last Monday to resume his studies.

Miss Muriel McIntosh and Edward Girard were Salem callers Thursday evening.

Mrs. Harvey Baker and daughter Myrtle were Salem callers Thursday evening.

John Higginson of East Liverpool visited J. D. Smith and family over Sunday.

Mark Klingensmith and Carl Muir are attending high school in Leetonia this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weikart and little son Gilbert spent Sunday with friends here.

Miss Lillian Keyser of Youngstown spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents here.

Miss Freda Woods of East Palestine spent Sunday with John Fieldhouse, Jr. and family.

S. C. Temple of Garrettsville was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fitzpatrick last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner of Youngstown spent Sunday with Frank Souffier and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weikart of Leetonia spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weikart.

John Selfridge and family of Alliance called on Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJano Sunday afternoon.

Frederick Roller, son of Howard Roller of Atlanta, Ga., visited relatives and friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis and children of Alliance spent a few days with his father, John Davis, and family.

Mrs. H. R. Brown returned home Tuesday to Chagrin Falls accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Mary Lewis.

Mrs. Walter Fulkerson of New Castle visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJano, a few days this week.

Mrs. Wm. Weikart and Floyd and Freda Johnson spent Saturday with Lee Weikart and family in East Liverpool.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Weikart of Leetonia and son Dean called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Weikart, Sunday.

Prof. Lee Gray held a teachers' meeting for his district, in the Washingtonville school building Saturday afternoon.

Auditor Thomas of the Erie and Auditor McCracken of the Wells-Fargo Co., audited the books at the Erie depot Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart and little daughter of Salem spent Sunday afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Weikart.

Mrs. Chalmers Cope is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cope, in New Waterford while Rev. Cope attends conference in Akron this week.

Mrs. Harvey Baker received word last week of the death of her cousin, Fred Marzette, at his home in Washington, D. C. The remains were taken to Milan, O., for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stevens and children of Sebring and Miss Bessie Lindsey of Columbiana, were Sunday guests of Squire Johnson and family.

Friends have received word from Robert Dow that he arrived in Scotland last Monday a week. He had a very pleasant voyage and did not have any trouble with submarines.

The general council of the Lutheran church in America, which is said to represent about 750,000 communicants, held its 35th biennial convention in Rock Island, Ill., last week.

Mrs. Frank Mellinger of Leetonia died in the Salem hospital Monday afternoon of cancer. Funeral services were held at her late home in Leetonia at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Washingtonville would not be averse to accepting the new state normal school about which several other Columbiana county towns are just now considerably agitated. Well, if we can't get it, we hope one of our sister towns may.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

On February 14, 1910, she says he threatened to kill her and drove their child, Walter, from the premises. They were married on Dec. 14, 1908. She wants their marriage ties dissolved and the custody of their child awarded to her.

Many from here attended the Lisbon fair this week.

There was no school today in the village on account of the Lisbon fair.

Mrs. Viola Baker attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Pennock, in Alliance today.

Mrs. Elmer Windle and children of Salem visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Simpson, over Sunday.

Joseph Thorp and W. E. Roller attended a committee meeting of the L. O. O. F. in Lisbon Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Murphy and children left today for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hartzell, in Painesburg.

The hot weather of the last week or more has made the farmer smile. He is now content, being sure of a developed corn crop.

John Fieldhouse was taken to the Salem hospital Monday and was operated on Wednesday. The operation was not a successful one.

Frank Paisley and family, J. N. Paisley and family and Miss Lillian Dalrymple spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Orr in Columbiana.

Mrs. Louis Anderson and children returned home to New Castle Sunday afternoon after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJano.

The Woman's Home Circle met with Mrs. Moses Grindle Wednesday night. The evening was spent doing fancy work. The hostess served an elegant lunch.

The Orion Lodge, No. 390, I. O. O. F., will hold its annual home-coming in Odd Fellows' hall Monday evening, Sept. 20. All members are kindly invited to attend.

A sum of $25,700 has been asked for the running of the Fairmount Children's home for the coming year. This will be paid by the two counties, Columbiana and Stark.

Mrs. Julia McIntosh, while canning peaches Tuesday, had the top of a jar break off when she was tightening the lid, cutting her little finger severely. The doctor put several stitches in it.

All children who are of the age of 12 years or over are kindly requested to come to the church next Saturday at 7 o'clock. A class will be organized and will learn about the Way of Salvation.

Six of the last ten cases filed in common pleas court were applications for divorce. When Cupid takes a recess during the after summer months, the divorce court keeps right on with its work.

The Lisbon Presbyterian church has asked the court to permit it to borrow $3,000 and to encumber its real estate as security. The court will of course grant the request. This money has been used for repairs.

Our postal rates in 1914 were excessive. To send a letter 35 miles cost was 9 cents. For over 400 miles the uniform rate was 25 cents, and as the mails were transported by stage coaches the process was a slow one.

The contract for constructing improved highways in Unity township was let to the James McCarron company of Youngstown. There are four different sections of roadway to be improved, the total of the bid being $39,137. Two sections are to be of brick and two of water bound macadam.

Special services at the Lutheran church next Sunday at 10 a. m. and 7 p. m. Harvest Home services will be held. All who are interested will kindly bring fruits, flowers, grain and vegetables to the church Saturday.

These products of the soil will be distributed to the needy families of our town. All come Sunday.

After many controversies at Salem as to who should settle up the Martha Street estate, heirs finally agreed upon C. C. Connell of Lisbon to be appointed administrator to take the place of Frank Mercer, who died while he was holding the position. Mr. Connell was appointed by the probate court and gave bond in the sum of $15,000 as there is quite a lot of property to be administered upon.

The Methodist Sunday school elected the following officers for the coming year last Sunday morning: Superintendent, Frank Paisley; assistant superintendent, Mark Klingensmith; secretary, Rhoda Bossert; assistant secretary, Myrtle Baker; treasurer, Eliza Wilkinson; chorister, Mrs. Frank Paisley; organist, Ruby Weikart; assistant organist, Marie Warner; librarians, Charlotte Bossert, Audrey Simpson, Gladys Boston.

Lisbon without saloons—peaceful, law-abiding. A few of the regulars get some booze brought in and certain of the foreign element get a steady supply. A little detective work would corner two or three bootleggers, who get by with no trouble.

Long chances. But with all the booze that is smuggled in, there is not one drunken man where there were twenty under the saloon regime, and not one sorrowful home where there were ten.

The general council of the Lutheran church in America, which is said to represent about 750,000 communicants, held its 35th biennial convention in Rock Island, Ill., last week.

Mrs. Frank Mellinger of Leetonia died in the Salem hospital Monday afternoon of cancer. Funeral services were held at her late home in Leetonia at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Washingtonville would not be averse to accepting the new state normal school about which several other Columbiana county towns are just now considerably agitated. Well, if we can't get it, we hope one of our sister towns may.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

On February 14, 1910, she says he threatened to kill her and drove their child, Walter, from the premises. They were married on Dec. 14, 1908. She wants their marriage ties dissolved and the custody of their child awarded to her.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

On February 14, 1910, she says he threatened to kill her and drove their child, Walter, from the premises. They were married on Dec. 14, 1908. She wants their marriage ties dissolved and the custody of their child awarded to her.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

On February 14, 1910, she says he threatened to kill her and drove their child, Walter, from the premises. They were married on Dec. 14, 1908. She wants their marriage ties dissolved and the custody of their child awarded to her.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

On February 14, 1910, she says he threatened to kill her and drove their child, Walter, from the premises. They were married on Dec. 14, 1908. She wants their marriage ties dissolved and the custody of their child awarded to her.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

On February 14, 1910, she says he threatened to kill her and drove their child, Walter, from the premises. They were married on Dec. 14, 1908. She wants their marriage ties dissolved and the custody of their child awarded to her.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

On February 14, 1910, she says he threatened to kill her and drove their child, Walter, from the premises. They were married on Dec. 14, 1908. She wants their marriage ties dissolved and the custody of their child awarded to her.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

On February 14, 1910, she says he threatened to kill her and drove their child, Walter, from the premises. They were married on Dec. 14, 1908. She wants their marriage ties dissolved and the custody of their child awarded to her.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

On February 14, 1910, she says he threatened to kill her and drove their child, Walter, from the premises. They were married on Dec. 14, 1908. She wants their marriage ties dissolved and the custody of their child awarded to her.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

On February 14, 1910, she says he threatened to kill her and drove their child, Walter, from the premises. They were married on Dec. 14, 1908. She wants their marriage ties dissolved and the custody of their child awarded to her.

Even before the day of the sale of the Leetonia Steel plant men were at work fixing up the tracks and making other repairs, and every day the force of men is increased, so that Leetonia has hopes that before the holidays there will be an active steel plant in that town. The McKendree people are back of the movement and they have the reputation of being hustlers.

The pottery workers of East Liverpool and of the entire country have reached a two-years' agreement with the manufacturers, many concessions in working conditions having been made the employees. The old agreement expires October 1st, and this settlement does away with any danger of a strike or shutdown. There is a general belief that the potteries will gradually increase their output now that the question of wages has been settled permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tourdot of Leetonia wants a divorce from Abel Tourdot who resides just across the Mahoning county line in Washingtonville. She states to the court that her husband started out their married life by being habitually drunk, and that he has now been absent for over three years.

MILLVILLE

Sept. 15—E. G. Bradbury of Akron made a trip to this section and the service directors to solve the problem of more adequate fire protection for the city of Salem, namely, the construction of a large reservoir or dam along the creek between New Albany and Millville.

Martin A. Wint and family of Columbiana visited friends here Sunday.

Harry Holland and family motored to Youngstown Thursday to attend a coronial of all Koran Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S.

Miss Jessie Richards, fiancée of Marion Harris, of Youngstown was favored with a kitchen shower Friday.

A picnic luncheon was an enjoyable feature of the day. Miss Richards is the daughter of Mrs. S. B. Richards. She is a graduate of the Salem high school and Mr. Harris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris of Salem and a graduate of Salem high school. Both have a circle of friends in this community.

A. J. Carr of Salem called here Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Riverside visited her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Sheehan, Sunday.

Columbiana county is bidding high this year to win the state banner which will be awarded at the state convention of the W. C. T. U. at Dayton Sept. 2 to the county in Ohio which has held the largest number of medal contests during the year. Columbiana county has held 43 contests over the county as follows: Winona 24, Rogers 4, Damascus 2, Salem 1, East Liverpool 1, Wellsville 1, Clinton county 1. The ladies of Columbiana county organization are confident that this year they will wrest the honors from them and hold the banner for a year at least.

This hot weather is good for corn and other crops.

Mrs. F. T. Dressel, Miss Florence Farghar, Miss Sara Esterling and Mrs. J. G. Senefont of Salem and daughter, Miss Laura, visited Mrs. Charles Scott of Columbiana Sunday, making a brief call on friends in this village when returning home.

G. E. Harland of Cleveland recently called in the village.

Mrs. Geo. Orr was a Salem visitor Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Parker visited friends in Alliance Sunday.

MAPLE GROVE

Sept. 15—Melvin Culp spent Sunday with John Burkholder.

U. D. Calvin, Jacob Calvin and Clement Beard, with their families, made an auto trip to Deerfield Sunday and visited relatives.

G. L. Bush and family called on Elizabeth Detwiler Sunday.

The social Saturday evening at the home of Allen Culp was well attended.

Ethel Frankford and Thelma Culp spent Sunday afternoon with Vera Cook.

Walter Johnston and Enos Detwiler their threshing Monday and Tuesday.

Charlotte Carter is spending some time with Mrs. Michael Bixler.

Isaac Yoder and wife of North Lima visited at S. M. Burkholder's Sunday.

Edna and Clara Felcht called on Allen Culp and family Sunday evening.

Jennie Gustafson of Osago, Mich., arrived here Sept. 4 to take up duties as teacher at the Boyer school.

Ira Cool and family of Canfield spent Sunday here with his brother John.

Enos Detwiler and wife visited Sarah Hurtz Sunday.

Benton Calvin and wife of Canfield visited here Saturday evening.

Joseph Bixler and wife cleaned the Boyer and Beard school houses and yards, making them very attractive for the pupils.

Gertie and Annie Arras of Pittsburg are spending some time with Willard Calvin and other relatives.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Greenford Christian church spent a pleasant day in the home of M. G. Huffman in Clarksville doing sewing and knitting comforts.

Mrs. John Cook purchased a Star piano.

EAST LEWISTOWN

Sept. 15—The people of this place were shocked last week Wednesday to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Eva Coy, wife of Stevin Coy. She had been suffering only a few days with what was thought to be a severe cold. Mrs. Coy was highly respected by all who knew her. She spent her entire life of 45 years in this neighborhood. Her husband, one daughter and two sons survive her. Funeral services were largely attended. Interment in Midway cemetery.

Earl Burns has returned to school at Ada.

Frank Barger called on friends here Monday.

Everybody attended the Canfield fair last week and all were pleased with the big show.

G. W. Harter is gathering and marketing a large crop of pea peaches.

C. W. Engler was in Columbiana Thursday night.

Patrolman Painter and mother were Greenford visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langraver moved here from Youngstown last Friday and are living with their son Dell.

Birds are reported to be destroying Sol Martin's plum crop.

Jonathan Harter and Mr. Painter were in East Liverpool Saturday.

Mrs. H. L. Burns takes orders Tuesday for bread to be delivered Friday.

Ask your neighbors to subscribe for the Dispatch, if their names are not already on the list. No other paper prints so much news of interest to rural folks. One dollar pays for a whole year.

The squirrel season opened this morning but it will take a lot of hunting around here to find much game. Gray squirrels are nearly extinct and there are not many fox squirrels.

There is more or less graft in the construction of family trees.

Four grapes is the one sure crop.

Sept. 15—Miss Esther Gosser was a county-seat visitor today.

Miss Greenwalt of Damascus was an over Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dickson.

Mrs. Bloom of Youngstown is visiting at the home of her kinsfolk, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDermott.

R. C. Kirk and family of Steubenville returned home last Saturday after several days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Kirk, and taking in the Canfield fair.

George Leonard had the misfortune to lose one of his valuable span of mules last week.

Miss Gladys Allen of New York City is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Allen.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will hold a box social in the town hall Saturday evening. Everyone invited.

Sept. 15—Margaret, little daughter of Jos. Cossna, is sick with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Frank Baird visited in Mineral Ridge last week.

Several from here took in the excursion to Columbus last Sunday.

Geo. Grose and daughter Freda were in Youngstown Monday.

Miss Mary Kline was home from Warren over Sunday.

Wm. Creed and family of Milton township were at Herman Creed's Sunday.

G. E. Osborne of Youngstown visited at C. A. Rose's Tuesday.

Ray Forney and wife of Youngstown spent Sunday at H. M. Leonard's.

Mrs. John Dutler and Mrs. Arthur Dutler of Boardman visited at Fred Shisler's Monday.

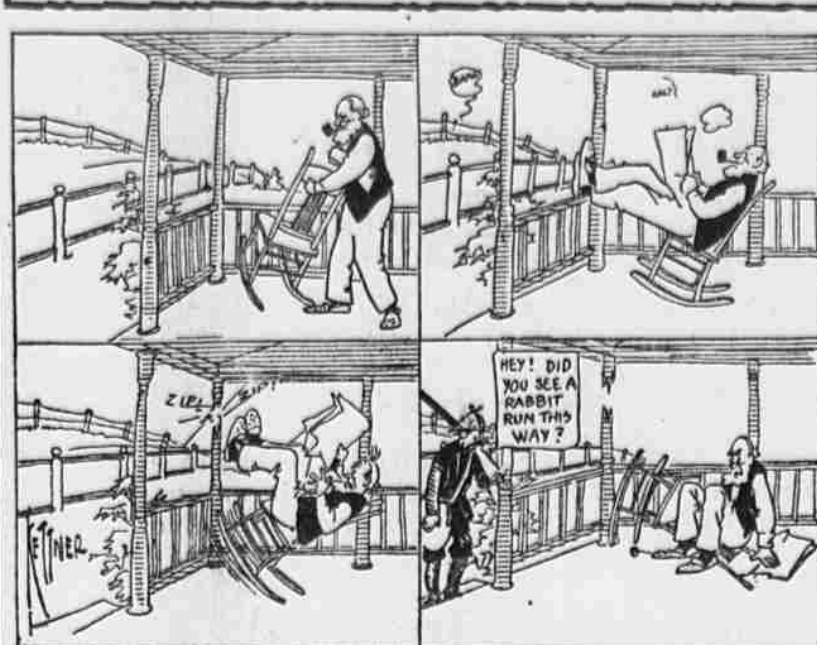

Mrs. Ganong of Garrettsville visited at John Arnold's last Friday.

Mrs. Lucy Smith of Pennsylvania visited at the homes of Shannon and William Roof last week.

The little daughter of Frank Baird is sick with chicken-pox.

Fortunately for many of us, success isn't dependent upon the manner in which we negotiate our soap.

MR. KILL JOY

(Copyright.)

CORNBURG